Hymn #383, “Fairest Lord Jesus,” came from Roman Catholic Jesuits in Germany. The text of the hymn dates back to 1662 but it is not known who wrote the words. The hymn first appeared in 1677 in a Jesuit hymnbook. No one knows who translated it into English either. Fairest Lord Jesus “emphasizes the beauty and wonder of Christ, and it alludes to His dual nature, that He was both human and divine, God made flesh, the God Man.”

John Chrysostom, a fourth-century preacher of Antioch, stated in a sermon: “I do not think of Christ as God alone, or man alone, but both together. For I know He was hungry, and I know that with five loaves He fed five thousand. I know He was thirsty, and I know that He turned the water into wine. I know that He was carried in a ship, and I know that He walked on the sea. I know that He died, and I know that He raised the dead... And truly some of these I ascribe to the human, and others to the divine nature. For by reason of this He is said to have been both God and man.”
